

University of Cambridge: Summer Residentials

Homerton and Selwyn Colleges are delighted to be hosting a range of summer schools taking place in June and July this year, for students in S4 and 5.

There are a range of subjects on offer, which we hope will appeal to lots of your students. We'd be very grateful if these could please be advertised, and hope to meet some of your students in the next few months!

S5 Summer School - Sciences and Arts/Humanities

Host College: Selwyn

Date: Monday 26th June - Thursday 29th June 2017

The Summer School has been designed to challenge students academically and participants will have the opportunity to choose from a range of different subjects on offer. All lectures will be delivered by academic staff at Cambridge and will be designed to give participants an insight into what it is like to study at Cambridge and other top universities. Many of the courses/degree subjects that the University of Cambridge offers will be represented and a full programme of events will be circulated nearer the time.

Please note that the application deadline is Monday 15th May, 2017.

S4 Summer School - Arts/Humanities

Host College: Selwyn

Date: Friday 30th June - Sunday 2nd July 2017

This Summer School will feature a range of different Arts and Humanities subjects, themed around Italy. Participants will travel (virtually) through the Italian peninsula with University of Cambridge scholars as their guides as they experience taster lectures in Languages, History, Art History, Archaeology, Anthropology, Film and Linguistics. In the evenings, participants will get involved in social activities, meet their peers from around the UK and have the chance to interact with current undergraduates, university academics and other university staff in a relaxed, informal setting.

Please note that the application deadline is Friday 19th May, 2017.

S5 Law Residential

Host College: Selwyn

Date: Wednesday 5th July - Thursday 6th July 2017

The residential has been designed to complement both the Faculty of Law's Open Day on 5th July and the University's Open Day for all subjects and colleges on the 6th July. This Residential will provide prospective students with an opportunity to find out more about the University, how Law is taught at Cambridge and experience a taste of student life first-hand from living in the College and speaking to our undergraduate helpers.

Please note that the application deadline is Friday 28th April, 2017.

Archaeology Summer School

Host College: Homerton

Date: Monday 10th July - Friday 14th July 2017

This summer school will act as an exciting opportunity to discover both the academic and practical basis of Archaeology as a University subject at Cambridge. It will include sample lectures and seminars, workshops, and excavation. Topics will reflect the breadth of the Cambridge Archaeology degree, which also offers tracks in Egyptology, Assyriology, and Biological Anthropology.

Arts and Humanities Summer School

Host College: Homerton

Date: Monday 17th July - Friday 21st July 2017

The summer school will act as an exciting opportunity to discover the range of Arts and Humanities courses on offer at the University of Cambridge. Students will experience sample lectures and seminars, workshops, and a supervision. There will also be guidance on admissions and interviews, and chance for students to explore the city of Cambridge for themselves.
